

Citizens Alliance for Property Rights

2019 Annual Conference & Banquet

Creating a Climate for Strong Property Rights

Saturday, April 27, 2019

Doubletree Suites, 16500 Southcenter Parkway, Tukwila, WA

“Man-Made Climate Change” -- whether you believe in it or not -- is having an increasing impact on property rights and taxes. CAPR’s conference and banquet presenters will share science-based analysis and insights on the political climate and CAPR’s impact on it to promote more intelligent and informed policies.

Conference ($50 per person)

8:30–9:00am	Conference Registration
9:00–9:50am	Climate Change and Carbon Taxation Dr. Don Easterbrook, Professor Emeritus of Geology
10:00–10:50am	The Disconnect Between CO₂ and World Sea Level Trends Thomas Wismuller, Meteorologist, founding member of the NASA TRCS Climate Group
11:00–11:50am	Is Water Scarcity in Washington Caused by Climate Change, Overuse, or Overzealous Regulators? Glen Smith, Washington State Ground Water Association
12:00–1:00pm	LUNCH Buffet and Keynote Presentation Climate Change and the Myths of Renewable Energy Steve Goreham, Executive Director, Climate Science Coalition
1:10–2:00pm	Washington State Energy Climate: Pursuing Energy Poverty? Dave Boleneus, Eastern Washington Wheat Grower, MS Geology
2:10–3:00pm	Washington State Legal Climate: Judicial Overreach? Joel Ard, Esq.
3:10–4:00pm	Washington State Business and Regulatory Climate: Are Small Businesses a Threatened or Endangered Species? Patrick Connor, NFIB WA State Director
4:00–4:45pm	Roundtable Panel with Q&A (all presenters)

Banquet ($75 per person)

5:30–6:30pm	Reception and Special Guest Reception
6:30pm	Banquet and Live Auction

Banquet Keynote speaker:

Marc Morano

Climate activist, filmmaker, and author of Politically Incorrect Guide to Climate Change

For Details and Registration visit:

www.CAPR.us